

TRUST IS....

- Taking someone at their word
- Relying on someone to support you
- Unbreakable promises
- Showing that you can be trustworthy
- Treasuring good friends

Knowing our friends will support us

Maggie explored what it means to be someone trustworthy who can be relied on by asking pairs to lean on and support each other.

A Christmas Story

Rev. Marian helped us to consider the trust which Mary put in God, and how she did what he asked in the Christmas Story.

Anti-bullying week

We celebrated anti-bullying week, exploring how we need to be able to trust each other, and how teachers and parents trust in pupils to do the right thing.

Being trustworthy, not gossiping

Rev. Brittain shared the proverb 11:13 "No one who gossips can be trusted with a secret, but you can put confidence in someone who is trustworthy", considering how we can be trustworthy by not gossiping, using THINK ->

Standing on God's promises

Rev. Maynard discussed how trust is the foundation on which all good friendships are built. Sometimes we might be disappointed by friends, but God's promises are true and we can trust them.

See, I have written your name on the palm of my hands.

Isaiah 49 v 16

- Is it true?
- Is it helpful?
- Is it inspiring?
- Is it necessary?
- Is it kind?

Knowing Jesus is with us in stormy times

The Open the Book team acted the story of Jesus calming the storm. The disciples needed to trust in Jesus, even though they were worried!

Our Christmas Church Service and Nativity Performance

Blossom and Willow Class shared their nativity with parents and friends, and we held our Christmas Church service, led by the pupils.
